

Employee Consent to Security Investigation

In the interest of confidentiality and security in the workplace, certain employees of this company will be required to submit to a security investigation, which will be fully paid for by the company. This investigation is deemed necessary by this employer to protect its confidential and proprietary information and trade secrets and/or to investigate and uncover illegal conduct in the workplace.

The undersigned employee has been fully informed of the reasons for such security investigation and of the procedure that is involved in the investigation.

The undersigned employee fully and freely consents to the security investigation that the employer deems necessary for the following company:_____.

In addition, the undersigned understands that the results of this investigation will become a permanent part of his or her personnel file and that the results of this investigation may result in disciplinary action and/or the termination of employment with this company. Finally, if the results of this investigation are negative, the employee understands that he or she will be given an opportunity to explain the results of this investigation.

The undersigned employee indemnifies, releases, forever discharges and agrees to hold the above-named employer, and any agents and/or employees or employer harmless from any and all claims, demands, judgements, and legal fees resulting or arising from any such investigation, its results, and any lawful use of such results.
